Scientific Editing

- Topic Selection

Our team of experts assists researchers in selecting a research topic that is original, inventive, relevant to their field of study, and most importantly, captivating to the researcher. With access to numerous research databases, we are able to conduct extensive literature reviews. This advantage enables us to offer a trustworthy PhD topic selection service provided by our specialists.

- Literature Survey

We offer expert guidance, support, and resources to help you identify, evaluate, and synthesize relevant literature for your research project. By utilizing a literature survey service, you can save time, benefit from expert knowledge, ensure thorough coverage of your research topic, and improve the overall quality of your research.

- Problem Statement

- Novel Solution

- Synopsis and Proposal

Research proposal is the most important document for any researcher to start and execute the research. But clients will have no idea on how to write this proposal. Here comes the Research proposal writing services for research candidates. Our research proposal writing services gives you complete insights about how to start a well-structured research. Think and act now. You should have a good start for your research because 'A good start is half done'. When you complete your research proposal successfully, you can surely get a confidence in your thesis writing.

- Funding Proposal

Do research with funds; Write proposal for fund – Reach us for the latter and achieve the first. Our services offer wide support for researchers and post doctorates on writing proposals for grant. We edit the proposal, review the quality, weigh the proposal budget and ensure the worth of it. Get the benefit of the services and become a funded researcher. Our services start from the title selection to the edit and the final check as per the requirements of standard funding agencies.

- Manuscript Preparation

- Plagiarism Reduction and Proof reading

Plagiarism, intentional or otherwise, is an ethical violation that could lead to outright rejection of your manuscript and damage your credibility as an author. We will assess the originality of your content with Turnitin, a leading plagiarism software, and provide a report with advice on how to reduce repetitions.

Our high-quality English Proofreading services are perfect for authors who require an elementary grammar and consistency check on their manuscript drafts, right before journal submission. Our English Proofreading services are suitable for researchers whose first language is English and who are certain that their writing does not contain any substantial language mistakes.

- Language Editing and Modification

- For Manuscript

- Have a manuscript, research paper, presentation or other scientific document that needs professional technical and English editing before submission? Our team of will perform a detailed proofreading, checking spelling, grammar, sentence structure and terminology.

- For Thesis

- Our experts will improve the language of your PhD Thesis helping you reach the highest academic standards.

- Thesis Editing

Simulation and Data Analysis

- Dataset collection and preparation
- Software Implementation and Result analysis

Artworks

- Illustration

- The Illustration service uses your files to generate high-quality figures that conform to your chosen journal's specifications. In addition to Formatting for your existing figures, Custom Illustration can assist you by generating original illustrations based on sketches, re-drawing low-resolution diagrams and flowcharts to generate high-quality figures, or creating graphs from data tables.

- Graphical Abstract
- Figure Formatting

Publication Support

- Technical Review

- Manuscripts can be rejected during peer review because of poor manuscript structure, a weak argument, or other factors that may have been overlooked by authors. If you choose our Rapid Technical Review service, our experts will review your article to identify major reasons for rejection. This means you can address the issues before you submit your article to the journal of your choice. You'll rapidly receive your review, allowing you to revise your manuscript and still meet publication deadlines.

- Journal Suggestion and selection

- Journal scope mismatch accounts for about 20% of manuscript rejection. Targeting the right journals is the first step to publication success. A Journal expert with expertise in your research field will recommend 3-5 target journals in a detailed report after analyzing your research manuscript and considering your publication expectations.

- Journal Formatting and submission

- Submit your manuscript for formatting to meet a specified journal's formatting guidelines and gain more time to devote to your research. your Manuscript will be formatted according to your target journal's guidelines and will provide comments describing any missing elements that are required for submission. If the editor of your target journal mentions any problems with the formatting of your paper, your paper will be reformatted for free.

The final step of journal submission is full of potential pitfalls. You have to read through the complex Instructions to Authors, prepare all supplementary documentations, and submit everything to an online portal following specific instructions. Non-compliance with journal submission guidelines might result in undue delay or even outright rejection. Our journal experts will save you time and energy with a fast and accurate journal submission.

- Reviewer suggestion

Often journals require authors to suggest reviewers during the manuscript submission process. Potential reviewers are independent experts in your field of research. However, this practice can sometimes cause controversies and put authors in an ethical quandary. Our network includes vast researchers from relevant subject areas for your journal, who could make excellent reviewers.

- Journal Revision

- Revised/Rejected Paper Editing

Do you have a rejected research manuscript lying in your drawer? Perhaps you struggled with responding to peer reviewers' comments and eventually just gave up... If you wish to give your rejected paper a second chance, send us your revised manuscript and the journal letter with reviewer comments, and we will help you address the issues and prepare your manuscript for a new submission. You can use this service to prepare your manuscript for

1. Resubmission to the same journal
2. Submission to new journals

- Authorship collaboration
- Bulk Publication
- Rapid Publication

Research Promotion

- Boosting Your Academic Visibility

This service can provide valuable support to researchers and academics looking to increase their online presence and reputation. These services offer a range of strategies to enhance visibility on platforms like Google Scholar, ResearchGate, and other academic networks.

- Citation

A research article becomes worth, if it is referred by more number of current and future researchers. While the publication details are disseminated by the publisher, it falls within a limited group of people. Our 'citation boost up' service intends to disseminate your research to the worldwide researchers. Our team sets own target to meet the desired number of citations in a limited time period. To accomplish the mission, we draft a scientific summary and a tweet. They will be posted in the social media, scientific newsletters and twitter. The feature of this service is that we do not just stop by just drafting and positing in the media. Rather, we monitor your Google scholar profile and we promote your articles till your profile gets the desired/ target number of citations.
